UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

IN THE MATTER OF THE SEARCH OF:

USPS Priority Express Mail parcel
EL780288619US addressed to "Lisa
Butler, 89 Meek Ave., Columbus, OH
43222"

MISC NO. 2:17 mj389

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR SEARCH WARRANT

I, Daniel J. Johnson, Postal Inspector, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I have been a U.S. Postal Inspector for the past 9 years, enforcing federal mail and drug laws; currently assigned to Columbus, OH. I have received training at the U.S. Postal Inspection Service National Training Seminars for mail-related criminal investigations and have investigated cases with other federal, state, and local police units.
2. The U.S. Postal Inspection Service is aware that drug traffickers have been using Priority Express Mail, a business-oriented service offered by the Post Office, to transport controlled substances and transfer funds, cash or otherwise, to further their enterprises. As a result of past investigations and prosecutions, the Postal Inspection Service has determined that a number of indicators can be used to identify packages containing contraband that have been entered into the Priority Mail network. Inspectors routinely review shipment documents and Express Mail packages originating from or destined to drug source areas to identify instances where there is a possibility of drug trafficking.
3. On July 15, 2017, Postal Inspectors identified a USPS Priority Express Mail parcel with tracking number EL780288619US that they believed to contain narcotics.
4. On July 14, 2017, Postal Inspectors took custody of USPS Priority Express Mail parcel with tracking number EL780288619US addressed to "Lisa Butler, 89 Meek Ave., Columbus, OH 43222" bearing the return address of "Mike Acosta, 862 N. Batavia St., Orange, CA 92868." The parcel is a 12" x 12" x 5.5" "Large Flat Rate" cardboard box and was mailed on July 18, 2017, from Corona, CA 92878 with $53.80 in postage affixed.

5. According to law enforcement databases, the recipient address of 89 Meek Ave., Columbus, OH 43222, can be associated to Lisa Butler. There was also a phone number for the sender of 614-345-8640, law enforcement databases associate this number to Jason Antis. On July 17, 2017 Inspectors seized 2.11 pounds of marijuana from a parcel that was addressed to Jason Antis at another address in Columbus.
6. According to law enforcement and postal databases, the return address of 862 N. Batavia St., Orange, CA 92868 does not exist and therefore cannot be associated to a resident by the name of Mike Acosta.
7. Additionally, California is a known source area for shipment of illegal narcotics to Central Ohio, as well as other areas of the United States.
8. On July 19, 2017, Postal Inspectors contacted Officer David Jones, Columbus Police Department, who is the handler for "Ayko" a drug detection dog most recently certified by the Ohio Peace Officers Training Council for the detection of marijuana, hashish, cocaine, "crack," heroin, and methamphetamine. K-9 "Ayko" has had 200 hours of training at Gold Shield Training Kennels, Blacklick, OH, a well-established and regarded training facility for police canines. Both in training and actual deployments, K-9 "Ayko" has successfully detected narcotics; demonstrating clear, positive, aggressive (scratch) alerts, establishing himself as a highly reliable police dog.
9. The subject parcel was hidden among other packages, and "Ayko" was allowed to search the entire area. Officer Jones concluded that K-9 "Ayko" did alert positively to USPS Priority Mail parcel EL780288619US, based on that alert, Officer Jones concluded that the odor of one of the drugs that K-9 "Ayko" is trained and certified to detect was present.
10. Based on the information contained herein, your affiant maintains there is probable cause to believe that the USPS Priority Express Mail parcel bearing tracking number EL780288619US contains controlled substances, and/or contraband, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 843(b).
11. Based on the facts set forth in this Affidavit, I believe there is probable cause to believe that controlled substances are being concealed in the parcel, and seek the issuance of a warrant to search the parcel for controlled substances to be seized.

Daniel J. Johnson
United States Postal Inspector
